

MIGUEL ABREU GALLERY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Exhibition: Doomed and Famous
Selections from the Adrian Dannatt Collection

Location: 36 Orchard Street, New York, NY 10002

Dates: January 16 – February 27, 2021

Miguel Abreu Gallery, in collaboration with Sequence Press, are delighted to announce Doomed and Famous: Selections from the Adrian Dannatt Collection, an exhibition accompanying the release of Dannatt's book of the same title. The show, somewhere between a brocante, an alpine monastery library, and a cabinet de curiosité, gathers highlights from the author's varied collections, assembled over the years and around the world.

The exhibition ranges from scraps of paper to rare signed publications, minimal sculpture and rococo treasures. Yes, there will thankfully be works by such renowned artists as Tina Modotti, Richard Prince, Nancy Spero, Richard Smith, Nan Goldin, Noguchi, Allan Kaprow, Rammellzee and Picasso. Yet, equally of interest will be a sweep of intriguing paraphernalia, objets trouvés and gifts by some more recherché writers, political activists, artists and friends.

Accompanying notes by Dannatt detail the history of the objects, the often surprising circumstances under which they entered his collection, their problems and provenance.

Dannatt will be entirely present for private tours of the show by appointment.

Signed copies of the book will be available along with a limited edition print by Hugo Guinness.

Works by Mitchell Albus, Laurie Anderson, Ana Baliza, Jay Batlle, Christian Bérard, Sheila Berger, Roger Blin, Derek Boshier, Juan Boza, Karen Caldicott, Robert Creeley, Guy Debord, Bobby Driscoll, Graham Durward, Richard Floethe, Victoria Floethe, Jan Frank, Adam Fuss, John Giorno, Nan Goldin, Marie Gossart, Hugo Guinness, Brion Gysin, Anthony Haden-Guest, Hananiah Harari, Michael Holman, Duncan Hannah, Damien Hirst, Ralph Humphrey, Allen Jones, Jacqueline de Jong, Allan Kaprow, Tony Kaye, William King, R.B.
